been arrested in this case and the driver and the conductor of the DTC bus have been suspended. Pickets and plain clothes police personnel have been deployed to check eve teasing in buses in the University area. Policemen are detailed on duty at the women colleges and schools and also at important market places frequented by women to check cases of eve teasing.

Recently, the Chief Executive Councillor, Delhi convened a meeting of the senior officers of the Delhi Administration, Delhi Police, Delhi Transport Corporation, Principals of Women Colleges and representatives of the University students union to review the situation. It was decided at this meeting to further intensify measures to check eve teasing specially in University special buses and at other vulnerable places.
